Reasons for Allowance

1. The following is an Examiner's Statement of Reasons for Allowance:

Claims 1-5, 7-12, and 14-19 and 21 are allowable of the prior art of record.

The examiner has found that the prior art of record does not teach or suggest or render obvious an object oriented system, method, and computer program product for monitoring and communicating events at plural target application of an application unit. The major difference in the independent claims not found in the prior art of record is information regarding monitored usage of the plurality of target applications is send by a protocol processor in the application unit, the information is sent by creating a first software class having a declared virtual function and creating a second software class derived from the first software class having a first definition of the declared virtual function and executing the first definition as set forth in the specification and recited in the independent claims 1, 8, and 15.

2. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submission should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
